InVisible Motion

A gust of wind sweeps across a hill, invisible to all who watch. A force is there. It can be felt but not explained, it can be touched but not held, and it can be channeled but not stopped. Then . . . as the force sweeps through the branches of a waiting tree, its effects can be seen. The motion which was invisible now becomes all too visible. The force was there; all it needed was an agent. Such a force has been unleashed at J.C.H.S. this year. The parents see it, the students feel it, and the faculty can channel it into constructive achievements.

Expressing Ones Self

Forward—Toward You

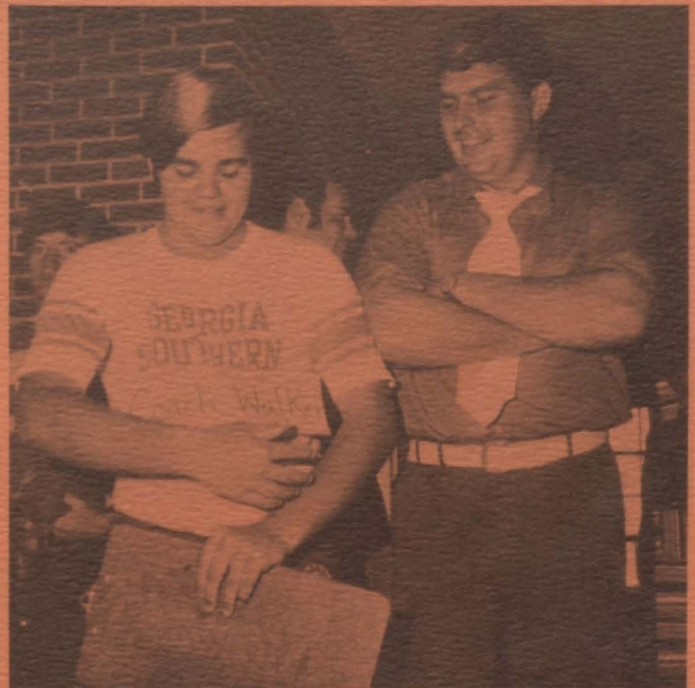

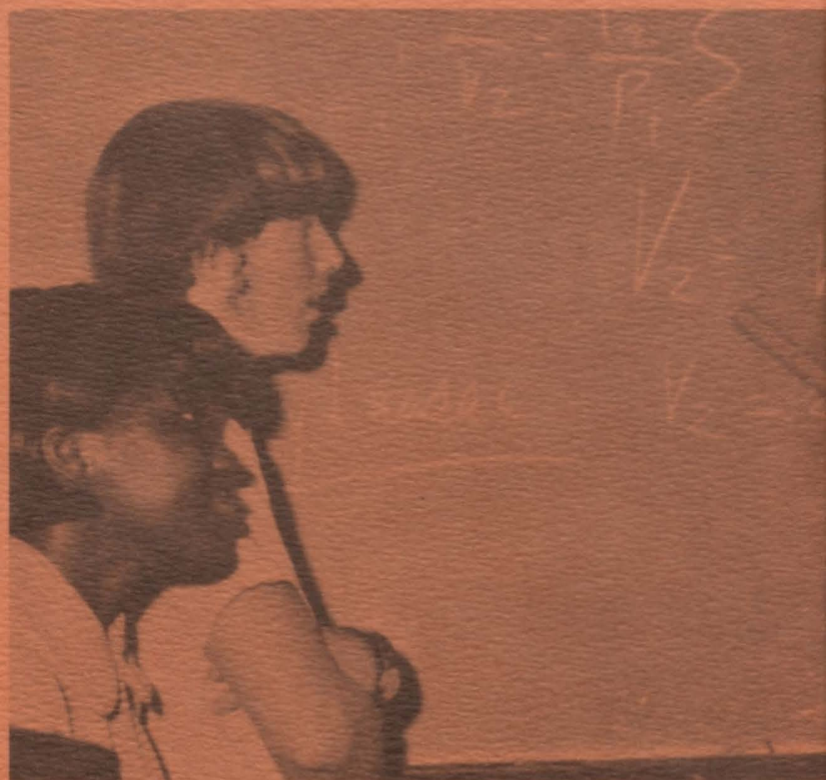

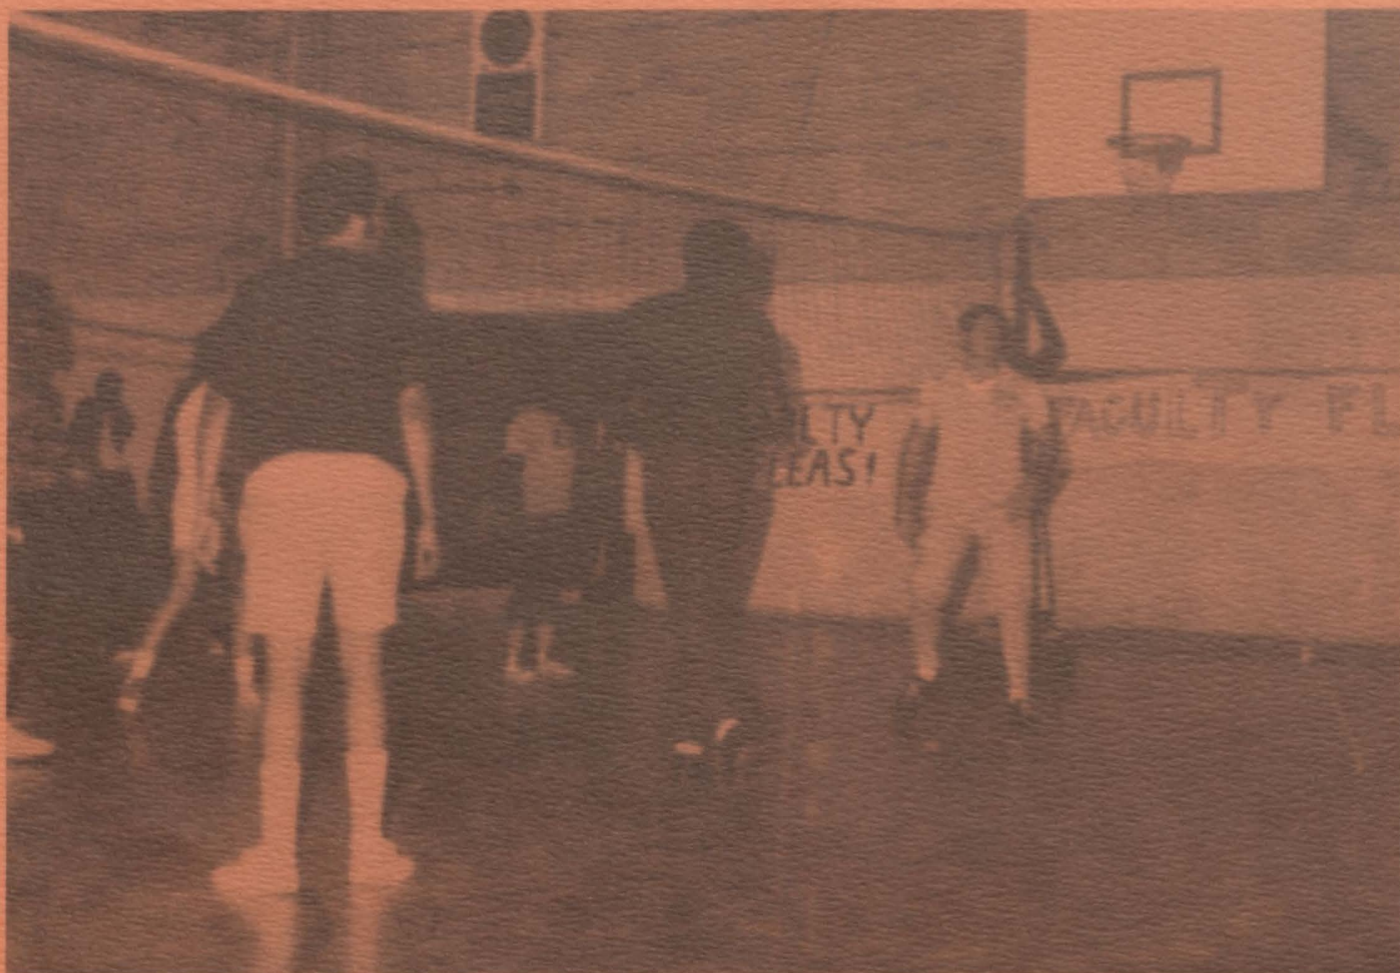

In past years the student body at J.C.H.S. has been complimented in many different ways. This year we have been cited over and over again for our willingness to cooperate with those in authority. Taking into consideration these things, the 1972 "Growl" is dedicated to the J.C.H.S. Student Body.

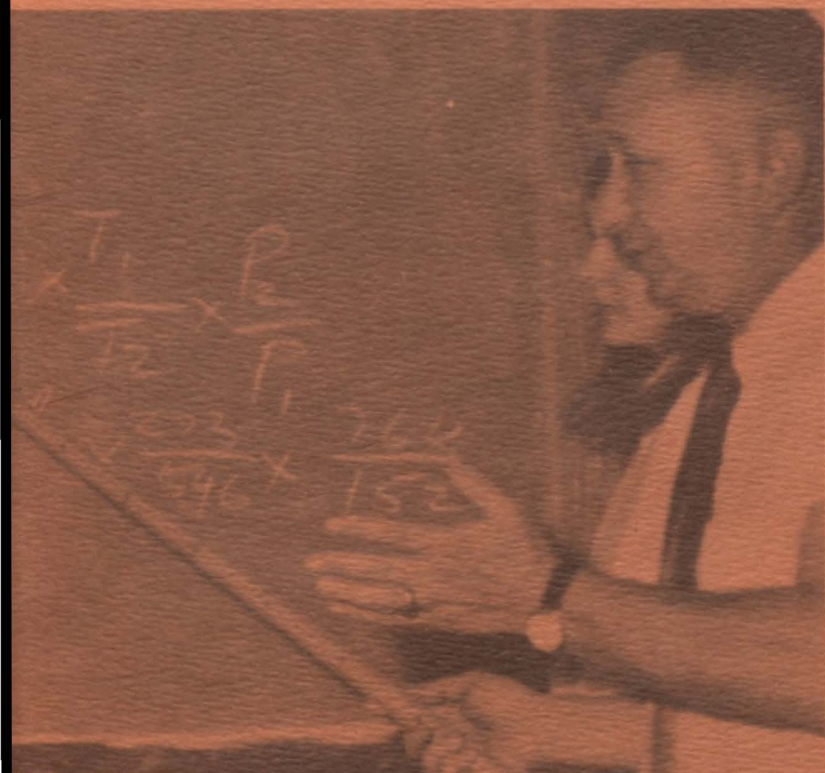

Each To His Own

Coming Through

Creating A Mood

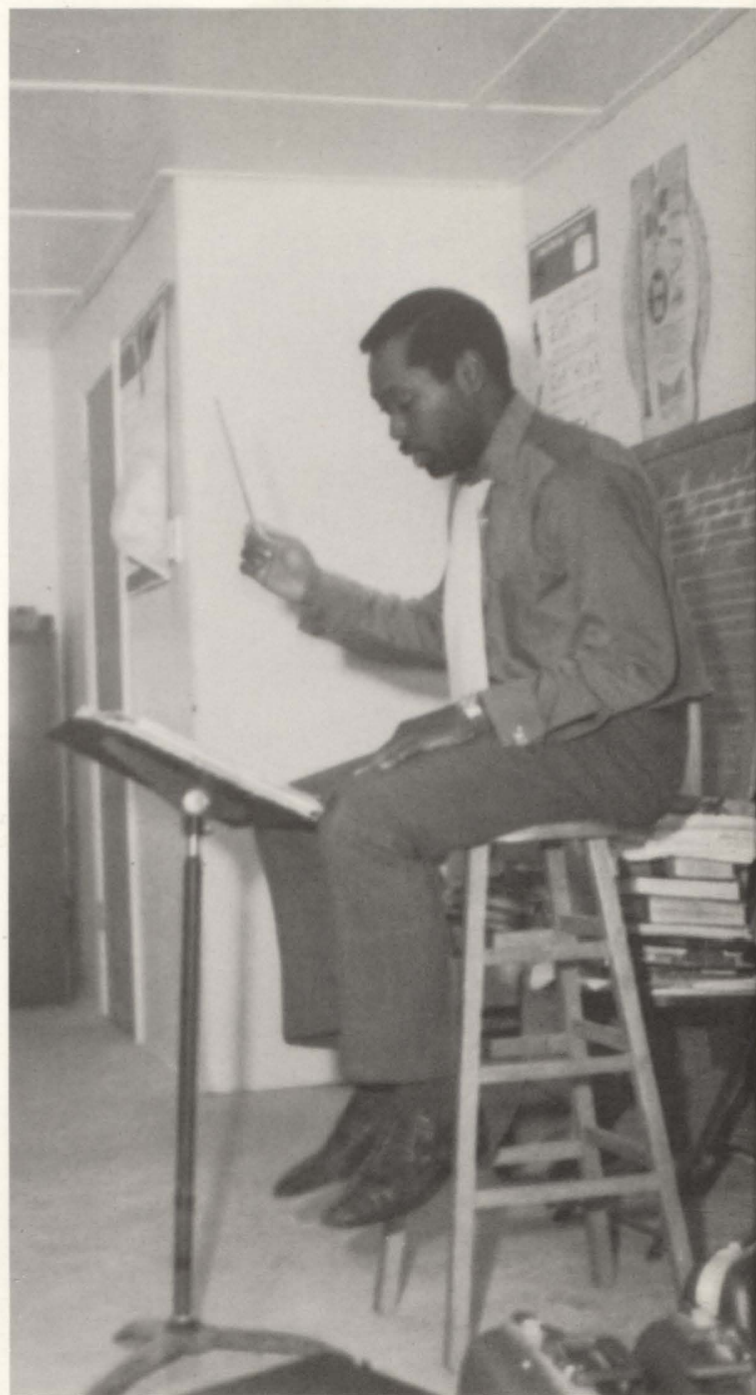

The school and its activities make up a way of life. Classrooms are noisy with groans and sighs, jokes and wise sayings, young voices and new ideas. Even when the classrooms are quiet, the minds within are still busy, full of thoughts and actions to take. Only at the end of the day does the school sleep . . .

It's been a time of joys and sorrows, laughter and tears, crystalized hopes and gallant endeavors, new fears and old nostalgic memories of times long passed. All of this and much more, and although the people responsible for it are seldom associated with the good times of the school year, they must work very hard to give it to us all.

Mr. Albert Radford: Counselor

Mrs. LaNelle W. Bivins: Curriculum Director

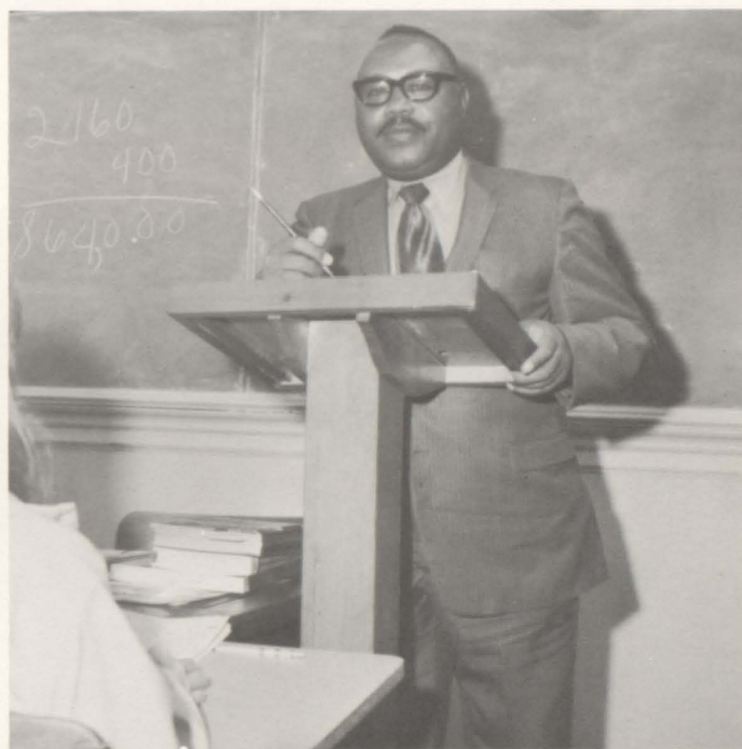

Science Department

Science is merely the thoughts and curiosities of men and women who had the courage to go looking for what they wanted to find, and the patience to wait for the results. The same characteristics are found in many teachers, though they themselves may not recognize it, and even the people around them may not grasp the significance of what these people are doing. It's kind of like the wind, you really don't notice it until it's gone.

Words are simply what they have always been: words, letters put together to form syllables for the effect of communication. Languages foreign to one's own dialect seem to be impossible to understand, yet the majority of people who comprehend what their neighbors are saying in words cannot, or do not, understand the people behind the voices they hear. Lack of sensitivity could account for an amazing amount of tragically disrupted lives. Incorrect usage of a language can prevent the comprehension of what a person is trying to say, but it cannot alter the emotions of friendship, love, or sincerely caring. Teachers are here to help us conquer the visible barriers of illegible or illiterate use of our languages. We have to take it from there.

Mathematics

Mathematics are in use every day of every person's life. Our society revolves on a 24 hour clock and a 365 day year. Our economical aspects work with the value and quality of products. Our architects, scientists, artists, and M.D.'s relect some fields in which Math is essential. In fact, Math is used everywhere: in all fields and careers, in Life itself.

No one can say what lies ahead of us. We know only that we have today to work with, and yesterday to work from. Perhaps, with luck and a lot of guidance from mistakes that have been made before, we will succeed in establishing a better society and a new dawn of change for our future generations.

With eager anticipation, the senior class of 1972 entered their final year with many questions to ask and many decisions to make. The concern and guidance of caring and involved people around them helped them to become a little more adult, a little more prepared to face a future that no one can really be sure of.

Seniors Now— What Later?

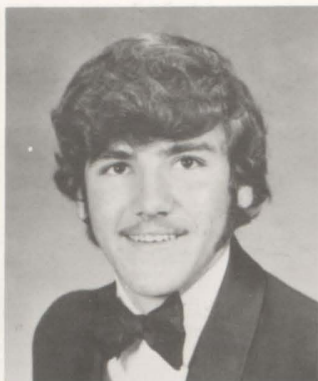

The senior year was spent gathering information and material which would help them to make decisions that could easily determine how the rest of their lives will be spent. There was so much for them to consider—what kind of job suits me best? Which college is right for me? Each of them had to search and probe their inner selves for the answers to these questions and hope they'd make the right decisions.

Senior Spotlights

There are a few things that will be constant reminders of the seniors' final high school year—special privileges, senior portraits, being the class from which the Homecoming Queen is chosen. Also, the cherished memories of friends, of favorite teachers, and of the self-satisfaction of knowing that one has given his very best.

A Junior's life is a kaleidoscope of motion. One minute he is walking to class with friends, the next running because the tardy bell has just rung. Maybe right after ordering his Senior ring he's studying his Chemistry, but ends up thinking about when he'll get it and what it'll look like. Or perhaps he is sitting trying to answer the questions on his PSAT and then starts wondering if it's really necessary. These examples demonstrate the constantly changing patterns of motion in a Junior's life.

CLASS MOTTO

Do Your Own Thing

"Look Out Here We Come"

The Sophomores of the year 71-72 have taken one more giant step toward their future. During this giant step they have experienced many different kinds of motions: knowing one another, sharing friendship during good and bad times, loneliness, and of course, finding love and respect for one another. These motions, didn't always spread to show true feelings, but they were there, some visible and others invisible.

Football 1971

The Greyhounds spring into action!

Getting the play.

Miller makes the catch!

Glenda cheers the hounds!

Stevens hit hard!

On September 3, the J.C.H.S. Greyhounds took the field for the 1971 football season, a season destined to be filled with much hard work and disappointment. There were many exciting plays during the campaign; long runs, difficult passes and bruising defensive action; but somehow the wreath of victory always eluded the Greyhounds.

Still, the school takes pride in knowing that it takes a lot of discipline and self determination to stay with the team when the going gets rough. The Greyhounds rose to the challenge and time and again they returned to the field eager for a hearty game and fighting for victory.

What was perhaps the highlight of the entire season came during the Homecoming game against Mary Persons when Ronnie Womack booted a 35-yard field goal, a Jones County High first.

Even though the Greyhounds were not "victors," they were winners in discipline, determination and dedication.

Pups Have Grinding Season

The Pups had a fine season which nearly proved to be a winning one. Coach Garrett's 'hounds' had tough offensive and defensive squads. They scored as much as 32 points, but never allowed more than 21. The players look to be valuable additions to the varsity. Congratulations to Coach Garrett and his Pups on a good season.

The 1971-72 girls team may best be described as experienced, determined, and full of character. It was a rare occasion when the girls weren't hustling and giving one hundred per cent effort.

Led by a corps of rough and ready Seniors, the girls began the long twenty game season facing many tough opponents. The girls improved as the season went along and scored big victories over G.M.C. and Mary Persons.

Toward the middle of the season, Coach Abbott used younger players to begin building for next year's season. The outlook is bright for the Lady Hounds.

Robert Curtis, Head Coach.

The Greyhounds had a fantastic season finishing with a 13-7 record. Led by new head Coach, Robert Curtis, the team was packed with experienced veterans and talented youngsters. The Greyhounds plunged into a very competitive region and handled themselves well.

In many of their games, the Greyhounds came from behind for victory making this one of the most thrilling seasons in recent years. This is a sure sign of character and determination in a team. On some occasions the regulars were given a chance to rest while other members of the team were able to gain valuable game experience.

B-Team Lassies

The B-team Lassies proved themselves worthy this year by finishing with a 7-2 season. They over powered tough opponents with ease. Coach Martin developed a hustling team. A prime example would be the 54-4 smash of Mary Persons. The season's highlight came during the 18-17 squeaker victory over Dublin. Congratulations on a job well done. Top performers for the B-team were Vickie Pounds, Essie Seabrooks and JoAnn Tuft.

Velma Martin, Head Coach.

B-Team Cagers

Coach Rodney Walker.

Morris does his thing.

Donald's unstoppable shot!

Jones County had one of the best ever basketball seasons when the B-team boys finished with a 8-4 record. The toughness of the hounds was proven when they averaged 52 pts. a game and allowed opponents only 44 pts. The season's highlight came during the home Wilkinson Co. game when the hounds refused to allow the Warriors a field goal until 13:34 into the game.

1971 Homecoming

1971 Jones County

Miss Jeannie Kitchens is one of the 1971 Homecoming queens. Although she seems quiet and shy, she is warm and full of life when among her close friends. With the Pep Club, she is usually present at the games to cheer her "favorite" player. She has been a member of the F.H.A., Tri-Hi-Y, Glee Club, and 4-H. On November 5, she received the honor coveted by every Senior girl when she reigned as Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming Queens

Miss Faye Miller is also Homecoming Queen for 1971. Very active in school events, she is a member of the newspaper staff, F.B.L.A., Letterman's Club, Student Council, 4-H, and as Co-captain of the cheerleaders, she can be seen at all of the school's athletic functions. Certainly one of the highlights of her Senior year was the thrilling moment when she was crowned Queen of the 1971 Homecoming events.

White Christmas

Of all the joys and gifts of Christmas, sharing and consideration are two of the most heart-warming to see. From the organ, Mr. Parks directed the music. Lively notes that sang out from within the mixed chorus resounded throughout the building. The lights dimmed, and the tall evergreen stood in regal solitude, sheltering the many gifts placed beneath its lowest boughs. The world was full of Christmas and a delightfully warm feeling.

Honors

STAR Student

Each year the top academic Senior in each accredited Georgia High School is named the STAR Student. This program is sponsored by the Georgia Chamber of Commerce through various local civic organizations. The selection is based on the student's academic standing in the class and his score on the College Board Scholastic Aptitude Test. This year Jones County High School's recipient of this honor is Miss Cathy Moore. As required by the co-ordinators, she selected a member of the J.C.H.S. faculty to share the recognition of this program. This faculty member is Mrs. Gloria Bass.

Governor's Honors

Annually, Jones County High teachers are asked to nominate students for the Governor's Honors Program. These students are tested for a specific course of study and for mental abilities. The four hundred top students are selected by the Governor to go to summer school at Wesleyan College. The students competing for the program from our school are: Marsha McDaniel-English, Steve Potts-Social Studies, Steve Sims-Science, and Joe Craine-Mathematics.

These people are Jones County VIP's. They are being honored for their unfailing support of our school and its functions. Their actions range from chaperon to bookkeeper and from secretary to teacher's aid. As in every organization our school could not function nearly as well without this "behind the scenes" support.

"Good mentality and character, creditable achievement, and commendable attitudes" are all qualities of a member of the Beta Club. The students in this most honorable organization strive to maintain their special recognition. They are hopefully leaders of tomorrow.

Letterman's Club

Finest products of our varsity squads make up the Letterman's Club. Everyone from football to golf players comprise this athletic group. The key to entry is to play 20 quarters, 18 periods, or just receive a letter from the coach.

Student Council

The alarm rang out loud and clear, the Student Council awoke from its two year hibernation. They set up the rockets, lit the fuses, and the school exploded into a grand, beautiful shower of spirit and enthusiasm. Spirit Week, Homecoming, the Queens and their court, helped it all along. Now they have a new idea—a constitution for J.C.H.S., and it is only the beginning of the things to come.

For the first time at Jones County High, a girls drill team marched and preformed at some of the football games. In their purple satin outfits trimmed in gold, they also appeared in the Homecoming '71 Parade. These girls worked very hard after school learning precision marching.

Drama Club

Lights, action, the play begins. The members of the Drama Club have studied the art of acting and have gone through the many hectic moments necessary to present a play.

This year the Drama Club has presented two plays—The Hang Up at Generation Gap and The Beverly Hillbillies.

Each time they decide to do a production the action begins. They first begin with casting the parts and then proceed to learn the lines. Long hours of hard work goes into building and erecting scenery also. Then they look forward with anticipation to the big night and hope for success.

Mixed Chorus

A melody of voices fills the air. The Mixed Chorus is in practice. The piano produces sounds that become amplified and harmonized by the great blend of young voices. In these voices, there is pride in achievement as a demand for perfection dominates the songs.

On February 17, 1972, the National Honor Society was born at J.C.H.S. In a solemn and inspiring ceremony, members from Northeast High School passed a symbolic torch to the carefully selected members of our student body. Mrs. Bland introduced the junior and senior members and recognized the 1972-1973 inductees.

In the fall the hopeful members began meeting and participating in those deeds of leadership and service that would earn for them membership in this selective group.

Checking out books and collecting money for those over due isn't all that the members of the Library Club do. They have meetings to preside over, and local, regional, and state projects to work on. And, of course, the big event when all twenty-eight members attended the Sixth District meeting in Fayetteville, Georgia.

Each member learns how a library should be run and hopes that someday they may be able to be the librarian.

Jones County High Yearbook Staff

What does a yearbook staff do? Work, work, work . . . rest, and work some more.

This year the thirteen members of the yearbook staff with their advisor, Mrs. Schuyler, have learned without a doubt the meaning of the words helping and sharing.

With the exception of two people, the staff was completely inexperienced. But they have managed to learn the many aspects of photo journalism necessary for yearbook publication and have hopefully produced one everyone will enjoy.

School Band

As the band marched along, one could see spectators patting their feet and snapping their fingers. The vibes from the 49er Marching Band made everybody do something. The invisible motion of the sound waves caused a visible motion of the spirit.

Art Club

This year the Art Club found a very beautiful, clever, and ecological use for glass bottles. The flowers they made looked quite attractive in these recycled vases. Many other contributions such as helping teachers make eye-catching bulletin boards have shown evidence of the Art Club at J.C.H.S.

Mr. FFA—Sam Thornton

The trash cans at our school and all the blue corduroy coats are evidences of the future farmers in our school. The members of FFA believe in good farming methods, leadership, respect for others, and the power of bargaining. Through the values instilled by this organization the members seek to become outstanding agriculturist of tomorrow.

Varsity Cheerleaders

"Two Bits, Four Bits, Six Bits, a Dollar all for the Greyhounds stand up and hollar." This cheer is the one the cheerleaders use most often in starting the spirit of the pep rallies and games off right. These nine girls practice and work hard. After they have learned the cheers they try to teach them to the Student Body, its not always easy but somehow they always seem to succeed.

Moving On . . .

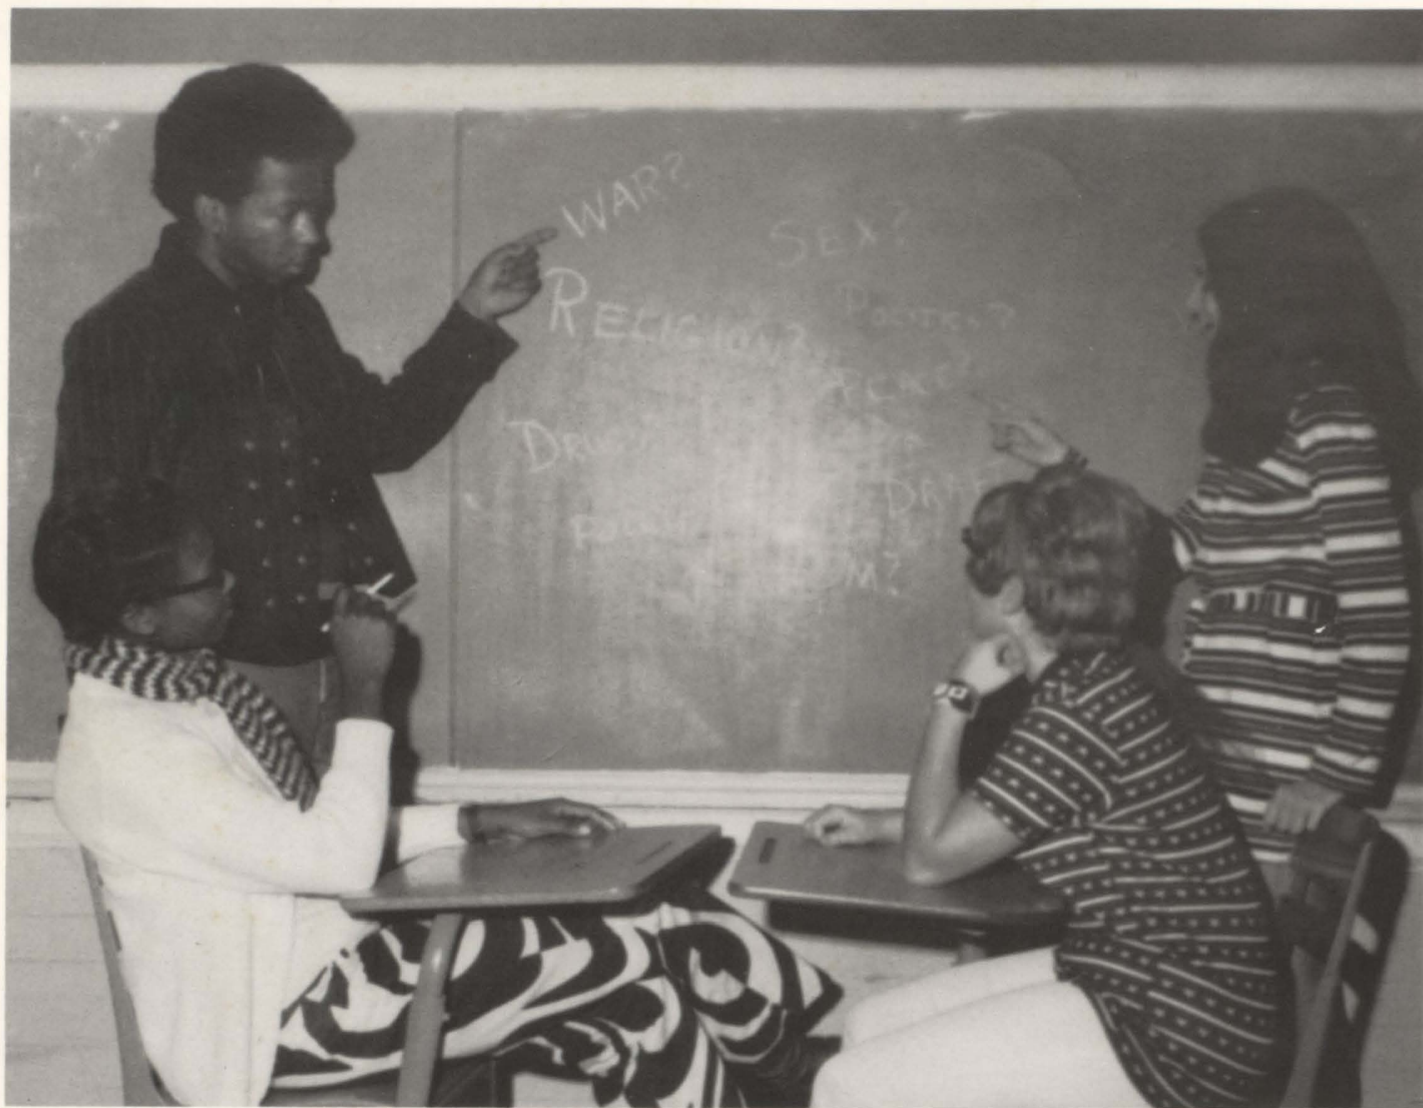

. . . With Invisible Motion

The hands of the clock move slowly on—People continue to grow and learn—Minutes move by unnoticed—Another class ends—The motion passing quickly by, pauses only for a brief glance at the present, then quickly moves on.

To end is to terminate a project completely, leaving no loose ends, nor any open sentences. To exit is to leave—whether temporarily or permanently.

So let us exit to face what we must and to conquer what we can. To love and to laugh, to cry and to smile, to live and to keep the world moving ahead In Visible Motion.
